

I'm writing to protest the decision by Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary. They use the public airwaves, therefore they have a responsibility to the public. It's a shameless abuse of the airwaves for partisan purposes. Surely both Republicans and Democrats can agree on this issue: politically partisan TV station owners should not abuse the public airwaves by unfairly tarnishing one presidential candidate.